

Puna Hongwanji Mission
Membership Application Form

ARTICLE 1V – PURPOSES of the Puna Hongwanji Mission shall be:

- 1) To plan, organize, direct, program and implement all its activities and functions Toward the understanding and appreciation of the principles and tenets of Buddhism based on the teachings of the Jodo Shin (Hongwanji) denomination.
- 2) To conduct religious ceremonies, practices and related activities for the understanding, propagation and appreciation of the Buddhist doctrines, principles and teachings among all who seek the knowledge and blessings of the Buddhist religion based on the teaching of the Jodo Shin (Hongwanji) denomination.
- 3) To promote educational and social activities for its members and to improve the general welfare of the Puna community.

ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP

- 1) Any person who is in accord with the purposes of the Puna Hongwanji Mission Is will to support, follow and carry out such purposes and who contributes dues to the Puna Hongwanji Mission Kyodan shall be accepted as a member of the Puna Hongwanji Mission and shall be entitled to participate in all Mission functions and activities.
- 2) Only such persons (Head(s) of Household(s) who shall have contributed their dues shall be entitled to vote (at the General Membership Meetings). $240.00 a year is the recommended dues amount.

All family members and/or relatives living in the same household using the same permanent address as the Head of Household shall be considered Puna Hongwanji members as long as any member of the same household contributes the recommended dues amount of $240.00. A single contribution will qualify all living in the same household as members.

A member who is hospitalized or in a care facility and is unable to fulfill his/her annual dues may request a waiver.

Grandchildren, Parent(s), Siblings, and relatives (specify relationship) living in the same household also qualifies as members. Please list them in the appropriate spaces or on the back of the Membership Information Form.

